

I am in favor of the Do Not Call List. I work full time out of the home and have a two year old son. It is extremely annoying to answer the phone while I am in the middle of cooking dinner or doing laundry to find a telemarketer on the other end of the phone. Please do not amend the ruling. I do not want telemarketers calling my home!